FOLLONICA
Extremely popular seaside resort facing the Gulf by the same name. It's recent steel mining past has produced several characteristic monuments worthy of note: the San Leopoldo main church known as the cast iron church, the wide gate which used to access the factory village and the tower clock inside the ancient industrial area.

SCARLINO
The imposing fortress which dominates the entire town from above proves the strategic position which Scarlino always had over the plains below, spreading all the way to the Follonica Gulf; each Summer, concerts and theatre representations are held with this evocative backdrop. In Puntone, the new tourist port "Etrusca Marina" offers boat moorings, shops and restaurants.

GAVORRANO
Old town with references to Dante (it was in the Castello di Pietra here that Pia de'Tolomei died), has for may years been active in the extraction of pyrite which has left evident traces preserved and enhanced today by the Parco Minerario Naturalistico. In summer, this suggestive setting provides the backdrop for theatre shows and concerts.

NOT TO BE MISSED Castel di Pietra, Teatro delle Rocce (Gavorrano); San Leopoldo Church (Follonica); Scarlino Fortress.
GOLF GREEN Golf Club Toscana (Gavorrano)

SCANSANO

Enchanting village on the hills in the Grosseto province, 500 meters above sea level. If you do stop over do not forget to savour local gastronomy: simple dishes with full tastes. Also don't forget that this is also the land where some great wine is produced, the Morellino di Scansano, DOC, full-bodied and ruby coloured.

AREA DEL TUFO

This is the southern most part of the Maremma region with its extraordinary patrimony enriched by ancient palaces, fortresses, renaissance and small medieval villages. Amongst these Manciano, where the Sienese Cassero soars. Its balcony offers an unprecedented view; Pitigliano, where the so called dug roads, cut through the tuff can be seen; the picturesque Sovana and Sorano, also with centuries of history behind them and finally Saturnia, where the Terme di Saturnia spa baths can be found, by now renown at an international level, with tubs holding sulphurous waters at a constant temperature of 37.5°C.

MONTE AMIATA

The only volcano to be found in Tuscany; still today it reveals its typical cone-shaped profile. Nature and history are tightly woven, alternating between trees and monuments, waters and villages, rocky hillsides and streets. The wealth of the volcanic land, the closeness to the sea, the millennial work of man add a special touch to the Amiata forests.

Traditions and festivals Focarazza of Santa Caterina on Christmas Eve; La Castagna in Festa (Arcidosso); Palio delle Contrade of Castel del Piano; Torciata of San Giuseppe (Pitigliano); Balestro del Girifalco (Massa Marittima).
